UPCOMING CONGREGATIONAL MEETING • Wednesday, May 30, 7:00 pm

Dear Congregants,

We hope you will join us at The Village Temple annual congregational meeting. This is an important event at which you will have the opportunity to review and vote on the proposed budget for the upcoming fiscal year, as well as the proposed slate of Board of Directors. Please mark the date on your calendar.

Please plan on joining us. We need a quorum of congregants present.

A VILLAGE TEMPLE FIRST: SHABBAT-IN-THE-HOME • Friday, May 4, 5:30 pm

On Friday, May 4, welcome and celebrate Shabbat in each other’s homes. The evening will start at 5:30 pm with singing, blessings, and appetizers at the temple, and then we will disperse to host homes for a delicious Shabbat dinner, conversation, and fun. What better way to deepen connections with one another?

If you haven’t done so, please register with Liotte Greenbaum (lgreenbaum@villagetemple.org) or call 212-674-2340 as soon as possible.

NOTE: There will be no Kabbalat Shabbat service on May 4. Those individuals/families who are observing a yahrtzeit will gather at 5:30 pm in the sanctuary for memorial prayers including Kaddish.
Forty years ago, in 1978, I returned from Israel having completed my first year of rabbinitical school. It was the year Israel and Egypt signed the Camp David Accord, securing peaceful borders between those two countries until the present. So much in our world today didn’t exist in 1978: soft contact lenses, AIDS, personal computers, cell phones, GPS systems, World Wide Web, digital answering machines, bar codes, Prozac, synthetic skin, LaserJet Printers, Skype, heart transplant surgeries, flat screen televisions, Cuisinart, TSA, American Girl, iPad, digital cameras, air bags…and the list goes on and on.

In 1978 the Central Conference of American Rabbis introduced Gates of Repentance, the red-colored High Holy Day prayer book (Machzor) to serve as a companion to Gates of Prayer. For the next 37 years a majority of Reform Jews across North America gathered in synagogues on the High Holy Days and prayed from Gates of Repentance. It was updated in the late 1990s to be gender neutral. Our congregation uses both versions of this Machzor on the High Holy Days. For more than a decade, the Reform Movement worked on creating a new Machzor that would address the changes in both the Reform Movement and the world. It sought to create a prayer book that would speak to the complex and diverse Reform Jewish community, and to provide meaning to worshippers no matter where they are on their spiritual journey. Indeed, our lives, too, have changed since 1978, as has our search for spiritual meaning.

In 2015, after years of being piloted, Mishkan HaNefesh (Tabernacle of the Soul) was introduced. It complements the weekday, Shabbat and Festival prayer book, Mishkan Tefila (Tabernacle of Prayer). Similar to Mishkan Tefila (and our congregation’s prayer book, Tuning the Soul), Mishkan HaNefesh provides, alternative translations, more traditional Hebrew prayers, texts for study, additional readings and poems and much of the music that has become a trademark of modern worship—Debbie Friedman’s (z”l) Mishebeirach, to name one. The new High Holy Day prayer book is fully transliterated and gender neutral. It is a two-volume set, one book for Rosh HaShanah and one for Yom Kippur—two volumes speaking to the breadth of prayers and readings.

Following this year’s High Holy Days, The Village Temple’s worship committee and board held thoughtful discussions regarding our current machzor. There were unanimous feelings that Gates of Repentance was out of date, the language and metaphors stale and the lack of transliteration an obstacle to so many in our congregation. Upon the recommendation of the worship committee, the board voted unanimously to adopt Mishkan HaNefesh as our congregation’s High Holy Day prayer book. Our deepest gratitude to Emily Hacker & Ann Keating, Jamil Simon, Nelly Szlachter and Arthur Rovine, who have underwritten the purchase of these Machzorim.

We are equally excited to share that there will be an opportunity to dedicate these prayer books in memory or honor of loved ones or special occasion. Details regarding this donor opportunity will be available in the weeks ahead.

Mishkan HaNefesh allows clergy to craft a worship experience that will be meaningful to their congregations. Cantor Bach and I will be working during the next months to create our Village Temple High Holy Day serices. We look forward to ushering in the New Year with you in September.

L’shalom,
Rabbi Deborah A. Hirsch

Transformative moments are thrilling to witness, but often misleading. The breakthrough performance of a virtuoso performer takes years of painstaking practice. Most overnight successes are built on a series of long days and sleepless nights. Still, witnessing transformation as it happens is inspiring and exciting, for individuals and institutions.

The second week of April marked such a moment for The Village Temple. On three separate occasions in that one week, The Village Temple community came together in huge numbers to celebrate three vital aspects of our synagogue: honoring the past, celebrating the future, and respecting our commitment to Tikkun Olam.

1. Honoring the past. On April 11, more than 120 people gathered to observe Yom HaShoah v’HaGevurah—Day of Remembrance of the Holocaust and Heroism. Fourteen VT teenagers participated in a multi-generational service that captured the somber reality of the six million Jews who perished, while taking inspiration from those who survived. We were privileged to hear from Ann Dorzback, the feisty and generous-spirited mother of our congregant Irene, and to learn the story of Ann’s life under the Nazis and her family’s escape from Germany in 1938. Film maker Nina Horowitz, herself a former competitive athlete, showed her film, “The Margaret Lambert Story,” about Ann’s cousin, a famous German high-jumper kept from competing in the Berlin 1936 Olympics because she was Jewish.

2. Celebrating the future. On April 13, The Village Temple was packed again, this time with many young children and their parents and grandparents, who gathered for an early pre-service dinner and then for services that featured our 3rd and 4th grade classes. The sanctuary rocked, thanks to the efforts and enthusiasm of Educator Alex Tansky, Rabbi Deborah Hirsch, Cantor Nancy Bach, Director of Engagement Liotte Greenbaum and wonderful musicians Rose Snitz and Anita Hollander.

3. Commitment to Tikkun Olam. On April 14, yet another crowd filled the social hall and sanctuary for the VT Soup Kitchen benefit honoring Dean Chavooshian. This elegant and joyous event raised approximately $20,000 to continue the work of Dean and the volunteers who have devoted heart, soul, and sweat to making the concept of Tikkun Olam a real and vital part of the Village Temple’s identity. See page 4 for photos from the event.

As I write this, we are looking forward to hearing Liz Dunst, a leading social action reformer on the board of the Union for Reform Judaism, and our own VT teens talk about turning their pledge to social commitment into a reality. That is followed by our annual delight, the musical Jazz Shabbat, and the week after, a series of Shabbat dinners across the VT community.

For me, as a VT member of 23 years and co-president the past 5, these events signify everything I love about this community. Each and every piece reflects the dedication and hard work of our amazing staff and clergy, working side by side with congregant volunteers. Please give special thanks to executive director Sandy Albert, a brilliant manager and dear friend. As for Rabbi Hirsch, I was going to say that in two years you have transformed the Village Temple. But you’ve done something far more powerful. You are teaching us how to transform ourselves, the mark of a truly great leader.

As the Village Temple approaches our 70th anniversary, I look forward to being part of our future, as a congregant and board member. On June 30, Sarah King will become co-president with Fred Basch. Sarah and her husband William have been members for 12 years; they have two daughters, Summer and Anais. Sarah has been on the Board of Trustees since 2014, where she has been instrumental in making the religious school committee a vital resource for VT parents. Raised in France, Sarah brings to our temple leadership her enormous professional skills running her own consulting practice helping nonprofits and social enterprises with strategic planning. Perhaps most important, she is a delightful person!

Serving as VT co-president has been an enriching and humbling experience. I feel eternally grateful to have worked with and learned from our clergy, staff, and lay leadership, and for the opportunity to learn about the complexities of community building, while getting to know and truly appreciate our diverse and wonderful congregation. Please join me in welcoming Sarah as our new co-president and being part of our ongoing transformation.

We are so privileged to have had Julie as the Co-President for the last five years. It is an extraordinary tenure for an extraordinary person. I can't imagine anyone else who could have provided such a steady hand, gracious presence, prescient intelligence, and kind heart to the role of president.

The improvements witnessed over the last five years are all around us. Julie is responsible for so much of what the temple has become. When she first became president, she introduced a series of events that enlivened programming at the temple. Julie was the first to recognize the value of keeping Rabbi Hirsch beyond a short interim stay. It was also Julie’s vision to embrace and expand inclusion and interfaith efforts.

Last year, in a blog post Julie shared a video of Harriet Zimmer, a Village Temple member for the last 67 years. In the blog post Julie asked Harriet about the secret ingredient that makes the temple tick. Harriet answered without hesitation. “It’s the people.” In the last five years Julie has continually brought the focus of the board and staff to that secret ingredient.

As we enter our 70th anniversary we will see more of the fruit of Julie’s tenure with events and programs focused on the people of the Village Temple. I am very proud to say that I had the honor of serving as Co-President with Julie for the last year and we are all very fortunate that she has kept the focus on us for her total tenure.

Shalom!

It is hard to believe the final weeks of the 2017-2018 school year are here and Religious School is almost over. Still, May and June offer many exciting opportunities to get involved, as it is always a very busy month for all Religious School students and their families. On Friday, May 4 we will welcome and celebrate Shabbat in each other’s homes. The evening will start at 5:30 pm with singing, blessings and appetizers at the temple, and then, we will disperse to host homes for a delicious Shabbat dinner, conversation and fun. What better way to deepen connections with one another? Stay tuned for more information.

We are planning a Religious School picnic at Washington Square Park on Sunday, May 6 at 11:30 am. Bring your brown bag lunch and blankets and have a great time outdoors with your friends at VT.

During the last week of classes, On Sunday, May 13, Tuesday, May 15, and Wednesday, May 16 we will celebrate our accomplishments and new friendships in the closing Religious School ceremonies. Keep an eye out for more information and plan on joining your children for our joyous celebrations.

On Friday, June 8 at 6:45 pm we will gather in the Sanctuary for a very special Camp Send-off and Volunteer Appreciation Shabbat Service. I hope it’s on your calendars and you are planning on joining us for this amazing Shabbat.

Thank you to all Religious School Committee members and parent volunteers who helped throughout the year to organize and coordinate many Religious School events and holiday celebrations. Also, a hearty tovód rabbi, to all parents for entrusting us with the care and Jewish education of your children. It is always a joy and a privilege to be a part of their lives from September through June!

A very special Thank You goes to Rabbi Hirsch, Cantor Bach, Sandy Albert, Anita Hollander, Liotte Greenbaum, and all the teachers who contributed so much to making this school year such a great experience for all!

I wish everyone a wonderful, happy and healthy summer and look forward to staying in touch!

A Special Message For Parents And Grandparents From URJ Camps:

Are your children or grandchildren your precious gems? Do you love watching them grow up? Do you enjoy giving them things they will love and that will help them as they grow as Jews? Here’s a gift suggestion that you and your child or grandchild are guaranteed to cherish, with benefits and memories that can last a lifetime.

If you have a child or grandchild who is currently in Grades 1-9, consider giving a positive, exciting and effective Reform Jewish experience – a summer at one of the Union for Reform Judaism’s (URJ) Northeast Camps – Eisner, Crane Lake, or Six Points Sci-Tech Academy. As you know, we are incredibly committed to our young people. Through our innovative religious education programs, we aspire to give the very best that Reform Judaism offers. Eisner and Crane Lake are the best! No other Jewish experience can even begin to approach the value of an Eisner or Crane Lake summer. Why? Just read on.

Eisner and Crane Lake Camps offer everything we have come to expect from terrific camps – sports, arts and crafts, water activities, music, drama, camp-outs, photography, radio, singing, camp Olympics, robotics, video game design, video production, coding, web design, environmental science, biology and more. However, it’s the exciting and creative Reform Jewish dimension that puts them way out in front. Judaic education, Shabbat celebration and Jewish cultural activities presented in an informal, upbeat, stimulating and challenging manner give our kids (and yours, if you like) the ability to say they actually enjoy being Jewish!

No kidding! Every summer, over 1500 kids spend two, four, or eight weeks loving Jewish living! And they bring that love home with them. It can, quite literally, change the atmosphere of a home and a religious school when, suddenly, kids not only know Jewish songs, but love singing them, as well! Eisner, Crane Lake, and Six Points Sci-Tech Academy campers come home and fall in love with synagogue because at these camps they fall in love with Judaism. They join Youth Groups. They become teaching assistants. They’re more interested in celebrating holidays. And the list goes on.

Does this sound like a gift you’d like your child or grandchild to receive? Then please contact the office, start the wheels rolling now (Eisner, Crane Lake, and Sci-Tech Academy have limited space, so applications need to be submitted soon), and give your child or grandchild the experience that will last a lifetime! Please call camp offices or visit necamps.urjcamps.org for more information.
